Modern Fire and Water Elements Delight at This New Brentwood Estate

Brentwood, Los Angeles, California

By Luxury Homes + Lifestyle

Westside, this elegant and warm mid-century masterpiece was tastefully envisioned to capture the eye and delight throughout.

The natural elements of fire and water are given a modern twist and seamlessly incorporated into the design to provide breathtaking results. Elegant indoor and outdoor fireplaces with ample seating provide the ultimate place to relax and unwind, while an illuminated waterfall in the dining room creates a Zen environment.

During the day, natural lighting streams in through floor-to-ceiling windows creating warmth and an optimal environment for enjoying the California sunshine. And once the sun sets, residents will be dazzled with the artful accent lighting, which features modern chandeliers inside, with soft lighting outside.

This 6-bed, 9-bath residence spanning 9,300 square feet is the pinnacle of luxury, and offers the most sought-after, priceless amenity on the market - unobstructed views of The Getty, lush treetops and canyons, and the sparkling city of Los Angeles.

Replete with an outdoor deck and sparkling infinity pool, soaring ceilings, beautifully designed master retreat with a spacious walk-in closet, movie theater, wine room, gym, full-service rooftop deck, and top-of-the-line appliances, 950 Kenfield offers the best that the Westside has to offer and the perfect opportunity for its residents to find complete serenity while enjoying all the modern comforts of a state-of-the-art home.

950 Kenfield Ave is offered at $12,899,000 and is represented by Santiago Arana of The Agency and Christina Collins of Hilton & Hyland.
